The resident chef offers a delicious selection of local and imported produce, at reasonable prices. The ever-changing menu is a delight whilst enjoying the quiet surroundings and sampling the wines for which the Southern Vales are renowned.

Live music is a regular feature on Sunday afternoons. Red Poles is also the ideal location for a private function and all enquiries are welcome. So make an entry in your diary to visit Red Poles very soon.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

The art gallery hosts a new exhibition every six weeks. These exhibitions may involve one or more artists working in all kinds of mediums, ranging from painting, printmaking, sculpture, jewellery and glass.

Visitors are welcome to tour the artists' space and talk with them about their work. The workshop area is open for classes for both adults and children. Jewellery making, print making, painting and drawing are just some of the workshops on offer.

A fine selection of artists' work is on display in the Café and any piece that catches your eye is available for sale. The beauty of Red Poles' surroundings is matched by the exquisite work on the walls and in the display cabinets. The colour and craftsmanship is a feast for the eyes.
