an enticing exhibition based on love and seduction with a contemporary narrative.

artists HANNAH CARLYLE & ZOË BROOKS

A collaboration between paint and jewellery intertwine to spell-out a macabre perception of a contemporary romance. Micro-scenarios encountering seduction, subjectification and a subtle innocence become an insight into the relationships we come across.

dates - 17 april - 29 may 2001

opening - 3pm sunday 17 april opening speaker - Dr Maureen Prichard - Principal Lecturer Visual Arts, Adelaide College of the Arts

Fox Creek is a family owned company located in beautiful McLaren Vale. Established by Jim & Helen Watts in 1984, Fox Creek has an international reputation for outstanding wine. The Fox Creek ethic is based on respect for the land, sustainable practices and a focus on producing high quality wines. Fox Creek is a significant patron of the arts around Australia. Visit their 19th century stone cellar door cottage set amidst beautiful cottage gardens. www.foxcreekwines.com
